

Ward's ORANGE-CRUSH and LEMON-CRUSH

—cloudiness

Have you ever noticed the cloudy appearance of Orange-Crush and Lemon-Crush while enjoying these rare-flavored drinks?

The reason for this cloudiness is also the reason for the unequalled deliciousness of Orange-Crush and Lemon-Crush—for it is caused by the uniform distribution throughout the drinks of thousands of minute particles of the actual fruit oil pressed from freshly picked oranges and lemons.

The interesting process which has made this possible was perfected five years ago by N. C. Ward, and is exclusive with Orange-Crush Company. It marks one of the greatest steps forward ever taken in the preparation of soft drinks, for it brings to you, without preservatives, the pure, delightful flavors which have made oranges and lemons the favorite fruits in every home. The cloudiness is your guarantee of genuineness, flavor and quality.

The booklet, "The Story of Ward's Orange-Crush and Lemon-Crush," gives full details regarding the making of these drinks. It shows how delicate flavors are obtained by combining the fruit oils with purest granulated sugar and citric acid—the natural acid of oranges and lemons.

Send for this free booklet today. You will better understand why Orange-Crush and Lemon-Crush enjoy the largest sale of any fruit-flavored drinks in the world.

That office boy was a good picker

With acknowledgments to K. C. B.

IT WAS my busy day.
AND I told the boy,
I COULD not see.
ANY VISITORS.
AND HE popped back.
AND SAID there was
A GENTLEMAN outside.
WHO WISHED to see me.
AND I said "No."
BUT I guess the boy
IS LIKE my wife.
AND DOESN'T know
WHO'S BOSS.
FOR BACK he comes
AND SAYS the man
WANTS JUST a word.
AND I told the boy,
I COULD tell the man,
JUST WHERE to go.

IN JUST three words,
BUT THE boy came back
AND SAID the man
COULD SPOT me out.
HIS BUSINESS needed.
JUST TWO words,
AND I'm a sport.
AND CURIOUS too,
SO IN he came.
AND HANDED me
SOME CIGARETTES to try.
AND SAID "They Satisfy."
AND I will state,
HE SAID something.

THEY satisfy—that says it!
Never were finer tobacco used in any cigarette and never were tobacco more carefully and skillfully blended. Chesterfields give you all that any cigarette could give, plus a certain "satisfy" quality that is exclusively theirs. The blend can't be copied.

MISSISSIPPI LOSES LEADING EDUCATOR

PROF. R. P. LINFIELD VICTIM OF
HEART TROUBLE AT UNI-VERSITY

Oxford, Miss., June 6.—Prof. R. P. Linfield, 48 years old, of Gulfport, head of the Gulf Coast Military Academy and a member of the board of trustees of universities and colleges in Mississippi died in the hospital at the State University Saturday evening.

He was a prominent educator of Mississippi. He came to the university last Sunday with the other members of the board of trustees and was apparently in the best of health. Monday night he was taken suddenly ill with an attack of heart indisposition, but by Wednesday morning his condition was much improved and Mrs. Linfield joined him here Wednesday night. He was rapidly regaining his strength and he planned to go to New Orleans to see his son graduate from Tulane University next Wednesday.

About 5:30 p. m. Saturday he began to suffer from trouble with his heart and he breathed his last at 6:15 p. m. His wife was with him when he died. His body will be shipped to Oxford Sunday morning and reach Gulfport Sunday night. Funeral services and burial will take place in Biloxi Monday at 4:00 p. m.—Dispatch.

With profound sorrow and regret the announcement in the above dispatch was read by Brookhaven friends and co-workers of the death of the distinguished teacher and educator.

In 1917 Mr. Linfield became head of the Junior Department of the Gulf Coast Military Academy at Gulfport and later was president of the Academy. Last term 400 students matriculated at the great military and naval school and under the guiding hand of Col. Linfield the institution gave promise of still greater prosperity in every line of its efficient service.

In the midst of an active, splendid career that promised much for his state and the higher development of its youth, Col. Linfield was suddenly called away in the prime of his life. Friends are sorely grieved at the separation and their sympathy is an inexpressible sympathy to the bereaved wife and only son.

—To Physicians and Surgeons: Have you a case you cannot cure? "The Miracle Man" is coming.

—Dr. and Mrs. A. P. Smith went down to New Orleans Wednesday where they remained for the day, combining business with pleasure.

—Miss Mae Colson and mother motored to Gulfport Tuesday, where they spent the day visiting and had a delightful trip to and fro over the splendid county roads.

—Miss Gex and niece, Miss Vivian Ducatel, have returned from New Orleans where they attended the graduation exercises of a friend of one of the academic institutions of that city.

—Mrs. Abrahams left Sunday for the lake resorts of Michigan, where she will spend the summer. Her daughter, Mrs. L. M. Power and little Miss Effie Graham Power, will join her later in the season.

—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Miltenberger, of New Orleans, were weekend visitors to Bay St. Louis, where they attended the graduation exercises of a friend of one of the academic institutions of that city.

—Miss Alice Chapman has returned home from New Orleans, where she has had a successful term at Newcomb College, and her return is hailed with pleasure by the younger social set.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Caron and sons are among the recent arrivals from New Orleans for the summer, and are located at their beach home, near St. Charles street, which was purchased during the winter. They have a handsome car and their stay here is most pleasant.

—As a tribute of appreciation of the many interesting athletic events afforded Bay St. Louis the past season by the collegians of S. S. C. and under the auspices of the faculty and Coach Forster Commager, our people ought to turn out in full force tomorrow afternoon to witness the last game of baseball of the season at the local stadium. The event is scheduled for 2:45 o'clock, and the contest will be between the team of New Orleans and that of the College. The last game of the season, and one which promises to be worth while, should and we feel will, attract an unusually large crowd. Let's give the departing collegians a rousing send-off.

—The Valera C. Jones High (colored public) School closed a successful session last week, the attendance one of the largest in the history of the school. There were three graduates, George W. Bowens, Bernadette T. Lanoux, and Hannah E. Willis, with prospects of eight graduates for next year. Geo. W. Brown, the principal, who has presided over the destinies of the school for the past dozen or more years with marked success, giving an intelligent and constructive administration, was assisted the past session by Mrs. M. L. Brown and Inez Labat, Calmentine Barabino, Julia E. Herndon and Mrs. L. L. Foote.

—To Druggists: Can your medicine cure all ills? "The Miracle Man" is coming.

—The wires from New Orleans at an early hour Thursday morning flashed the glad news that another son had been given to the parental hearts of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Taylor, at Hotel Dieu, and both mother and child doing well. The little fellow weighs 12 pounds and is as handsome and gifted as his father. May the little one, in addition to those of his father inherit all the attributes of his mother both of heart and mind.

—To Lawyers: Have you heard of the man who has never lost a case? "The Miracle Man" is coming.
